

The Sports Museum Application 2017 New Balance Falmouth Road Race

The Sports Museum is a non-profit educational institution that has served Boston and New England for the past 39 years. Housed at the TD Garden, The Sports Museum features a half-mile of exhibits celebrating the history and character of Boston sports. Through its educational programs BOSTON vs BULLIES (www.bostonvsbullies.org) and STAND STRONG, The Sports Museum leads the way in using the power of sports to help kids build character and prevent and stop bullying. All told, more than 25,000 upper elementary and middle school students each year experience a character building Sports Museum educational program.

The selection of runners for our 2017 Falmouth Road Race Team will be evaluated based on responses to the following information:

Running History

Please provide your running history, for example, how many 10Ks or 5Ks have you completed? Have you run the New Balance Falmouth Road Race before?

Personal Story

Why do you want to run the New Balance Falmouth Road Race on behalf of The Sports Museum? What significance would running the Falmouth Road Race have in your life?

Connection to The Sports Museum's Mission

In what ways are you already associated with The Sports Museum's mission?

Fundraising Commitment

Each runner is responsible for: $1,200.00 basic fundraising commitment; however, The Sports Museum would like to see our runners go above and beyond that number. Our stretch goal (which is not mandatory) is $1,500.00. Please let us know what your goal would be and how you would reach that goal. Have you done any fundraising in the past? Please explain.

Please e-mail your completed application to Ashley Walenta at awalenta@sportsmuseum.org. Applications are reviewed in the order they are received and we will contact you with questions and information about next steps. Thank you for your interest in running the 2017 New Balance Falmouth Road Race on behalf of The Sports Museum!
